"I just got back to Oklahoma City from Lawrence, KS where I attended the Big XII Conference on Black Student Government. I attended a Passion for Leadership workshop and it changed my ENTIRE view of what I want to start putting my effort and focus into in my last year (maybe) as an undergraduate.

I cannot thank you enough for what you do! Not only have you mastered the art of facilitating the development of passion, but you are very insightful and a good people reader."

Najah H., Student

Our Youth Leadership Day was a great success thanks to Lamarr Womble's ability to relate to students and to effectively communicate his message of "Finding Your Passion". Lamarr truly inspired our students and left a lasting impression. The students as well as the adults in audience said over and over again, that Lamarr's message encourages them to define and explore their passions.
